Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, American women of every race, class and ethnic background helped found the nation in counties recorded in unrecorded ways as servants, nurses, nuns, homemakers, industrial workers, teachers, reformers, soldiers and pioneers; and,

WHEREAS, American women have played, and continue to play, a critical economic, cultural and social role in every sphere of our state's life by constituting a significant portion of the labor force working in and outside of the home; and,

WHEREAS, American women have played a unique role throughout our history by providing the majority of the nation's volunteer labor force and have been particularly important in establishing early charitable, philanthropic and cultural institutions in the country; and,

WHEREAS, American women of every race, class and ethnic background served as early leaders in the forefront of every major progressive social change movement, not only to secure their own right of suffrage and equal opportunity, but also in the abolitionist movement, the emancipation movement, the industrial labor union movement and the modern civil rights movement; and,

WHEREAS, despite these contributions, the role of American women in history has been consistently overlooked and undervalued in the body of American history:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the month of March, 1988, as

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Nineteenth Day of January, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
